

Ventcroft

Winner of

International Trader

2008 Award

Ventcroft was announced as International Trader of the Year 2008 at the final of the Daily Post Regional Business Awards held at The St Georges Hall, Liverpool. The regions prestigious International Trader award was sponsored by the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce.

(Left to Right Gail Molyneux, Andy Groves, Jim Malone, Jack Stopforth CEO Liverpool Chamber of Commerce, Ian Rotheram & Karen Jones.)

The event organisers used a panel of judges to select the winners of 9 award categories from a huge number of high quality entrants, with Ventcroft coming out on top in this category for export achievement.

Last year at this event Ventcroft won the 'Business of the Year' award for companies with less than 50 employees and were also runners up in the Investment of the Year award category.

The 2008 awards were held at a glittering black-tie dinner with Peter Sissons as host and Pete Waterman of Stock Aitken & Waterman fame as Keynote speaker.

The International Trader Award recognises our sustained success over the past two years, with sales up almost 100% in overall world export sales, and in particular our achievement which brings back manufactured export sales to the region and UK.

